

65 down the 80.

Just picked up two stragglers and their dawg.

Asked me where I was headed. I said East, East to Lovelock.

Mah cycle's leaking oil,

Told the folks to throw their packs as far back as they could.

Was planning' on ridin'

But now I got these two...So I think tomorrow I should.

Going' 65 down the 80. Just another day on the road.

Thought I'd pick up some traveling folk...spice up another day driving' this big sky road.
